General Instructions

(Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code, unless otherwise noted.)

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.—We ask for this information to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. We need it to ensure that taxpayers are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax. You are required to give us this information.

Purpose of Form.—Form 8308 is filed by partnerships to report the sale or exchange of a partnership interest (or portion thereof) where a portion of any money or other property given in exchange for the interest is attributable to unrealized receivables or substantially appreciated inventory items (section 751(a) exchange).

Who Must File.—A partnership must file a separate return on Form 8308 for each section 751(a) exchange of an interest in such partnership that occurs after December 31, 1984 (See section 6050K.).

A partnership does not have to file Form 8308 until the partnership has notice of the section 751(a) exchange. The partnership has notice of a section 751(a) exchange when either:

- (1) the partnership receives written notification of the exchange from the transferor (see Instructions to Transferors); or
- (2) the partnership has knowledge that there has been a transfer of a partnership interest and at the time of the transfer, the partnership had any unrealized receivables or substantially appreciated inventory items. However, no return or statements are required under section 6050K if the transfer was not a section 751(a) exchange. For example, a transfer which in its entirety constitutes a gift for Federal Income Tax purposes is not a section 751(a) exchange. A partnership may rely on a written statement from the transferor that the transfer was not a section 751(a) exchange unless the partnership has knowledge to the contrary. If a partnership is in doubt whether partnership property constitutes unrealized receivables or substantially appreciated inventory items or whether a transfer constitutes a section 751(a) exchange, the partnership may file Form 8308 to avoid the risk of incurring a penalty under section 6652(a).

When To File.—Form 8308 is filed as an attachment to the partnership's Form 1065 for the taxable year in which the calendar year of the section 751(a) exchange ends. It is filed at the time (including extensions) for filing Form 1065. See Instructions for Form 1065 for service center addresses where Form 1065 must be filed.

If a partnership is notified of a section 751(a) exchange after it has filed its Form 1065, the partnership is required to amend its return within 30 days after notification. The partnership must attach a completed Form 8308 to the amended Form 1065.

Instructions to Transferors

Transferor Notification To the Partnership.—The transferor (seller of the interest) in a section 751(a) exchange must notify the partnership, in writing, within 14 days of the exchange.

The written notification must include the following information:

- (1) Names and addresses of both parties to the sale or exchange of the partnership interest;
- (2) The taxpayer identification numbers of the transferor and if known, of the transferee; and
- (3) The date of the exchange.

Transferor Receives a Copy of Form 8308 From The Partnership.—This statement alerts transferors that they are required to treat a portion of the gain realized from a section 751(a) exchange as ordinary income. For more information see Publication 541, Tax Information on Partnerships.

Separate Statement Required by Transferor.—You as the transferor are required by regulations section 1.751-1(a)(3) to attach a statement to your income tax return with the following information:

- (1) The date of the sale or exchange and the amount of your adjusted basis in your partnership interest.
